

ABSODAN UNIVERSAL

1 - 3 mm

Oil binder type III/R

Universally applicable oil and chemical binder, registered for traffic areas.

Characteristics (typical figures):

ABSODAN UNIVERSAL	Unit	Test method
Colour		Reddish
Graining	mm	1,0 – 3,0
Bulk density	g/l	450
Fine grain content < 0,125	%	0,1

Properties and Performance:

ABSODAN UNIVERSAL is a granule based on diatomaceous earth (moler). Due to its good absorption behaviour it binds and removes all kinds of oil, fuel and lubricants, solvents, lyes and liquid chemicals on solid ground.

From the hygienic point of view there are no doubts against the use of the product. The package size corresponds to work medical demands to the relief of the spinal column.

Applications:

ABSODAN UNIVERSAL is a many-sided applicable product. The scale of the application range reaches from industry and commercial enterprises of every kind to private households.

The oil binder has proven itself in the following areas:

- automotive industry
- garages
- transport services
- mineral oil dealers
- fire department

ABSODAN UNIVERSAL is applied evenly thick on the polluted floor and after sufficient soaking time picked up and disposed according to the regulations.

The bandage fortune by 1 litre of binder amounts to approx. 0,4 litres of liquid to be soaked up.

Specification:

Suitability oil binder type III/R:

Binder for acids
Binder for alkaline substances (lyes)
Binder for combustible, flammable liquids
Binder for traffic areas type III / R
Binder for hydrous and polar liquids